CRITICIZE TROLLEY LINE ROADBED

Citizens' Association to Ask State Corporation Commission Here

ADDRESS BY DR. FOULKS

Tells of Sanitary Work Accomplished During Past Six Months—Members Discuss Matters of Interest to City.

The Alexandria Citizens' Association at a meeting held last night directed the utilities committee of that organization to invite the state corporation commission to come to Alexandria to hear complaints against the Washington-Virginia Railway Company.

It was charged by some of those present that the roadbed of this company is very bad and that owing to its bad condition on King street that thoroughfare is being torn up because of this at the expense of the taxpayers.

Other matters discussed included the removal of ashes and garbage and the bad sidewalks in different parts of the city.

Dr. Louis E. Foulks, city health officer, gave a review of the work accomplished by the city health department during the past six months. There are some things the department would like to do but cannot owing to lack of finances he said. Dr. Foulks said that the collection of garbage is one of the most difficult problems confronting many cities.

He told the members of the association that he is going to present to city council an ordinance providing for the moving of garbage which will not cost the city a penny and which he thought would bring order out of chaos. It provides among other things for districting the city and having all collectors licensed and they to collect only in that part of the city alloted to them. Removal of ashes he said is not under the jurisdiction of the health department.

A review of the survey made of the sanitary condition of Alexandria was given by Dr. Foulks. He told of the reduction in the typhoid fever cases and also the reduction in the death rate.

One of the functions of the health department he said is to prevent the spread of contagious diseases, and he favored the extension of the sewerage system. The health department he said stands as a guard for the health of the city and is to protect human life.

When he came here Dr. Foulk said he had no friends to reward and no enemies to punish and consequently he had been free and untrammeled in his work throughout not being deterred by any political influence.

A vote of thanks was extended him for his talk..

The meeting was presided over by F. Clinton Knight, president. Short talks were made by James T. Luckett, secretary; Ashby Pladen, F. T Quinn, W. J. McCaffrey, L. P. Woodward, M. T. Dwyer, P. A. Kersey, R H. Roberts, F. C. Knight and others. Announcement was made of an improvement in the telephone service since the last meeting. Several new members joined the association and other routine business was considered. Letters were read from fraternal organizations expressing their approval of the work of the association. Many of the matters presented were referred to committees to be put in to concrete shape before final action is taken by the association.

U. S. DISRICT COURT

Case Against George Welch, Charged With Being Connected With Alleged Robbery of Cars

In the United States District Court, Judge Edmund Waddill, today, the demurrer of the defense in the case of the Metropolitan Trust Co., of New York vs. the Washington Utilities Company, was overruled.

Most of the time of the court was consumed in the trial of Arthur Welch, indicted for having on his premises goods which had been placed in the custody of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company for delivery. A number of witnesses were examined, after which the court took a recess until 2 o'clock p. m.

The case against George Welch, charged with being a party to the offense, was not nolprossed.

WILL TEST CANDIDATES

Aspirants Must Prove by Records and Attitude

Washington, March 2.—In applying its plan of obtaining labor—political domination through infiltration into the control of the regular party organizations by means of indorsing or disapproving candidates in the primaries and elections the directors of organized labor's impending political activities will not be content with a candidate's complacency as to his merits nor with his record.

They will want to know his views and inclinations and, more definitely his attitude toward labor's aspirations as they may be affected by legislative or administrative action. Not only will the record of every candidate be tested by the measure of his devotion to labor's interest, but it is possible that he will be asked to square himself with what may be called a "labor platform." Whether this shall take the form of making the aspirant enter into a covenant to support such a platform or whether he will be advised of its nature and allowed to work out his own salvation is still in doubt. In any event, such a platform is being evolved for the leaders.

In respect to acceptance or rejection of a candidate, according to his record, it is proposed to leave nothing to doubt or ignorance, but to make a searching examination of the entire career of every candidate for office, from President down.

SLEEPING SICKNESS

Paris, March 2.—Attired in pajamas as startling as a D'Annunzio dream in Fiume, Paul Poiret, creator of daring fashion innovations, sat up, pinched his arm, rubbed his eyes, made a sound of amazed satisfaction, while wife, child, doctor, nurse and attendants crowded round. The brilliant couturier was awakening from a ten days' attack of the strange sleeping sickness that has been raging in Paris the last few weeks.

M. Poiret felt the first symptoms of the disease at the end of January and tried to fight it off, but finally took to his bed.

"Although I could not move, open my eyes or speak, I was conscious of what was going on," he said, "while my mind, impelled by some force stronger than my will, reflected, visions after visions of clothes, houses automobiles—one stranger than the other.

'I realized the beauty of women dressed in skins like the bacchantes of ancient Greece; I saw houses built like the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, automobiles gliding like serpents across the fields and meadows by means of a series of joints, as graceful and diminutive tanks, while my nostrils were filled with perfumes of exotic and fantastic plants of Tibet and China.

"Altogether the sleeping sickness is a wonderful stimulant to the brain of an active man."

TUCKER WILL RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Announces Candidacy for Democratic Nomination In 1921.

STATES' RIGHTS BIG

Lieutenant-Governor Buchanan May Also be Opposed by John Garland Pollard

Richmond, March 2.—Harry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, announced yesterday that he would be a candidate in the Democratic primary of 1921 for nomination as Governor of Virginia.

The announcement was made in a letter to State Senator Thomas J. Downing, of Lancaster, in reply to a request from Senator Downing that he take this step.

Mr. Tucker, in his announcement did not discuss State issues, saying that this would be done in due time but stuck a note of warning against centralization of power in the Federal government at Washington.

The entrance of Mr. Tucker into the lists assures at least two candidates for the Democratic nomination in 1921 Lieutenant-Governor B. Frank Buchanan having declared that he would announce himself at the proper time.

It is possible also that former Attorney-General John Garland Pollard whose appointment to the Federal Trade Commission by President Wilson, has been sent to the Senate for confirmation, will again enter the race for Governor.

In his letter to Senator Downing Mr. Tucker said:

"I am in receipt of your kind letter urging me to announce myself a candidate for the nomination of Governor of Virginia at the next Democratic primary, for which I beg to thank you most sincerely. The number of letters I am receiving, and the personal expressions of many, as well as the sentiment of the press of the State in some instances, lead me to believe that a majority of the people of the State are willing to honor me with this high office. I, therefore yield to your suggestion and announce my candidacy through you.

"The unrest that prevails in the country, in a large measure, incident to the war, can only be remedied by a return to sane and constitutional methods. Individuals, men and women rich and poor, capital and labor, organizations and classes of every description seek to make the Federal government the vehicle of their preferment at the expense of the suffering public. Governments are not constituted to advance the cause of any class of men at the expense of the whole people, but rather to prevent one class from using the government to injure another. In a country like ours, where equality of condition is impossible, equality of right is essential. To establish this equality of right is the true, the chief, function of government. To this end I hope to see a great gathering of the people of Virginia (from every county in the State) at the convention to be held at Roanoke in May who, true to the principles of Jefferson, with one voice will adopt a platform containing but four words only:

"'Back to the Constitution.'

"In due time I will announce my position on State issues."

REV. DR. LAWRIE

To Support 200 Italian War Orphans In Italy

Mrs. Katherine Smoot Tuccimei, of Rome, Italy, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Virginia A. Smoot in this city, has received a letter from Rome with regards to the two orphanages in Italy established by the American Red Cross, and in which Mrs. Tuccimei is interested.

This letter states that the Rev. Dr. Lawrie, pastor of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church at Rome, recently visited these orphanages and after a thorough examination of the conditions and management announced that he would insure the support of 200 orphans for a period of six years. This increased number will necessitate remodeling a granary situated on the premises, into domitories to accommodate the children.

Mrs. Tuccimei in untiring in her work for the support of these war orphans and is gratified at this confirmation from such a source of her representation of conditions in Italy and the worthiness of these institutions.

The sale of solicited articles for the benefit of the orphanages will be held shortly, under the auspices of Mrs. Tuccimei assisted by a committee of ladies from the several protestant churches, the date will be announced within a few weeks, as the former arrangements were cancelled owing to sickness.

The Dreadnoughts clinched the championship and also the Spalding Trophy last night by easily defeating the Lyceums in the final contest in the Alexandria City Basketball League at the Armory, 34 to 13.

"Jinx" Fegan proved the star attraction of the evening, the diminutive forward of the Lyceums shooting one sensational basket. Beeton counted six baskets, Dreifus four and Crouch three. Hoy scored two field goals for the losers. The floor work of Loverin and Roberts was excellent.

Tonight, the Dreadnought Athletic Club will hold a special meeting at the Community Center, President Duncan calling the session for 7.30 o'clock. Important subjects will be discussed and a large attendance is requested. The Dreadnoughts will hold a smoker March 12th. Details of the smoker will be announced in the Gazette at a later date.

PASSES DEANS MEASURE

Richmond, March 2.—Passage of the Deans bill for the enforcement of the prohibition laws, house bill 73, as amended by the senate, was the feature of the morning session of the house of delegates yesterday. The amendment forbids the employment of any person as an agent of the department by the commissioner who cannot prove a good moral character.

AVERT FILIBUSTER ON LIQUOR BILL

Senator Mapp Frankly Announces Intention to Prevent Vote

"NOT MEDICINE BILL"

"Intended to Bring Back Glad Days" Accomac Senator Declared in His Remarks.

Richmond, March 2. — Senator James Cannon, of Richmond, yesterday averted a filibuster by Senator Mapp against the Cocke bill, permitting physicians to keep on hand as much as six gallons of spirits for medicinal purposes, only by a motion that the Senate address itself to advancing bills on the calendar.

"I yield to the Senator's suggestion," Senator Mapp declared, "with the distinct understanding that I will have the floor when the work in hand has been completed."

The Senator from Accomac, in addressing himself to the amendment he had offered, striking from the bill section 13, dealing with the dispensing of liquor by the State Health Commissioner to physicians, very frankly announced to the Senate at 1.20 o'clock that he would hold the floor until 2, so as to give certain "dry" Senators an opportunity to reach the chamber.

When the body adjourned at 1 o'clock, on motion of Senator Cannon Senator Mapp had the floor, opposing the bill.

"This bill is intended to bring back the 'glad' days," the Senator declared. "It is not a medicine bill, but a liquor bill."

Senator Oliver interrupted to ask if the Senator from Accomac did not believe physicians might as well handle six gallons of liquor as for druggists to dispense sixe barrels.

"No," was the reply. "Druggists have all sorts of restrictions thrown around the dispensing of liquor. Both the Federal and local laws take care of the matter."

Senator Mapp had begun the discussion by declaring that every physician of easy conscience in this respect would become, under the Cocke bill the keeper of a local barroom. unfortunately, he said, there are some men of this type in the medical fraternity.

"They love liquor," he declared "and would be free in dispensing it."

Senator Oliver took exception to the reply of Senator Mapp to the inquiry of Senator Carnon as to whether he would yield discussion of the Cocke bill for the advancement of bills on the calendar.

"With the distinct understanding that I will have the floor when we return to consideration of this measure" Senator Mapp had declared.

Senator Mapp, at the outset, had opposed consideration of the Cocke bill declaring that a provision of the budget law forbids taking up a measure carrying an appropriation until the biennial appropriations bill has been disposed of. This view was opposed by Senator Cannon and Cocke. On a motion to pass by consideration of the bill, Senator Mapp lost by a vote of 15 to 10.

An amendment offered by Senator Oliver, cutting down the amount of liquor the State Health Commissioner may ship to physicians from ten to six gallons, was adopted without discussion.

Senator Mapp's amendment provided for the elimination of this whole section.

Just a steady glow;

BOY BANDITS ROB STORE

$2500 in Gems Taken From Smashed Window in Philadelphia

Philadelphia, March 2.—Two youths, working with the smoothness of trained bandits yesterday afternoon smashed in the window of a jewelry store on the busy corner of Twenty-ninth street and Girard avenue, scooped up $2500 worth of diamond rings, fired a shot into the store and then made a quick escape through the crowd to an automobile.

They were pursued by Gustave Yeager 55 year old proprietor of the store. A throng of one hundred persons, idling on the corner or waiting for street cars, stood by with mouths agape and watched the robbery and brief chase to the car, which in all did not consume ten seconds.

The gems had been but fifteen minutes before taken from the safe, where, in fear of just such a robbery, the jeweler had kept them for weeks, and put on display.

No policemen was in sight or hearing and none appeared until the Twenty eight and Oxford streets station was notified by telephone.

JACKSON HANGED

Washington, March 2.—James Henry Jackson, convicted slayer of Miss Lillian Hood, a war worker, paid the penalty of his crime upon the gallows of the District jail at 7:01 o'clock this morning.

The condemned man met his fate reciting the rosary after Rev. Father Mihm, and was calm and unmoved to the last. The trap was sprung at 7:01 o'clock, and Jackson was pronounced dead at 7:14 o'clock.

PREYED ON RELATIVES

Falls Church, Va., March 2.—Exploitation of America's heod dead is charged against a man who describes himself as Vernon A. Callar arrested at his home in Falls Church, Va. Callar is alleged to have obtained lists of soldier dead picked names and addresses of the next kin and to have written, and in some cases to have wired for money saying that a mistake had been made by the government and that the loved one was not buried in Flanders fields, but was here without funds and would depart for his home as soon as the money was received. According to detectives pitiful letters and telegrams were received by the score, and in instances money was inclosed, usually $50 or $100. When asked how many telegrams and letters he sent out, Callar is said to have replied: "That's beyond me. I sent them to nearly every large city in the country." He was charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE BILL

Richmond, March 2.—By a vote of 48 to 22, the House late yesterday afternoon killed the Boschen-Willcox bill, which left it to City Councils to determine who should and who should not keep places of business open on Sunday.

Defeat of the measure was preceded by an eloquent plea for its enactment by Delegate John W. Cherry, of Norfolk city, and an equally eloquent plea for its rejection by Delegate E. T. Bondurant, of Prince Edward.

The vote was a test of strength between the city and rural factions, practically every country delegate, and some from the cities, voting against the bill.

Spreading the wonderful gospel of everlasting gladness, Mary Pickford in her latest picture "Pollyanna" at the Richmond tonight is bringing joy and new hope to millions. As you watch her the "glad" feeling creeps through your veins and into your heart and lo! you find yourself loving even your enemies and trying to do good by them.

ADVENT OF MARCH

March made its entry yesterday not as a lion, nor as a lamb, the wind being from the northwest, but not coming in fierce blasts as is often the case at the beginning of the third month of the year. There will, however, be occasional strong winds from the north and doubtless cold snaps ere the sun crosses the line about the twenty-first. The weather today has been ideal.

According to the almanac, the winter of 1919-1920 has but three weeks to run. Before that period shall have passed the six weeks of ground hog meterology will have ended.

Conditons during the past month have given the rodent a better standing, as wintry conditions have virtually existed since the second ultimo.

Today six years ago old boreas was having his own way in this section of the country. A fierce northwest wind with very low temperature set in on Suday, March 4, 1914, and the giants of the north having emerged from their caves blew vigorously upon their conch shells three days. On Monday, March 2, it was with difficulty that people managed to walk against the fierce blasts. Limbs had been twisted from trees during the night, shingles sent sailing through the air, while in some cases buildings had been materially damaged by the wind. Blast followed blast in rapid succession, and conditions without doors were bleak in the extreme.

It will be remembered that part of the north wall of a dwelling on the east side of Fairfax street, between King and Prince, was blown down that night.

Like the storm at Yarmouth described by Dickens in "David Copperfield," this storm will long be remembered. Many occupants of residences remained awake throughout the night fearing that chimneys would be blown down or their homes unroofed.

INTERCHURCH MOVEMENT

Tasks which confront the evangelical churches of the world were portrayed in word and picture to ministers representing practically every protestant denomination in Virginia, coming from every county in the State, assembled yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church, Richmond, for a three-day conference under the auspices of the Interchurch World Movement. Ministers from Alexandria are in attendance.

Conditions as they exist, not only in the State and nation, but throughout the world, showing the extreme need for new activities, will be placed before the more than 600 pastors present at the conference, by interchurch world movement and denominational leaders. These facts gathered by the survey and mission departments of the interchurch world movement are declared by leaders to be the most astounding ever assembled by the church in religious history.

Opening at the same time as the conference of pastors will be the woman's conference which will be held at the Seventh-Street Christian church in the capital city, where subjects pertaining to women's part in the religious activities of the interchurch world movement will be discussed at sessions lasting until tomorrow night. Prominent church, club, educational and professional women leaders, numbering more than 200 will attend this conference.

Rev. James I. Vance, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Nashville, thirty years ago pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Alexandria, and the leading Protestant clergymen of the South, sounded the keynote of the conference in the opening address yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Featuring the sessions this afternoon and tonight will be the presentation of surveys of the foreign missionary survey department of the interchurch world movement by Rev. J. S. Seneker, the home survey report by Dr. Edmund deS. Brunner, and the rural survey report for Virginia by Dr. James Buchanan, of Richmond, state rural survey director, former secretary of the Associated Charities here.

Tomorrow will be one of the big days of the conference. There will be five speakers on the morning program, These include Ralph E. McGee on "Religious Education," John A. Bowman on "Hospitals and Homes," Dr. W. T. Lingle on "Industrial Relations," Dr. J. C. Greenfield on "Ministerial Relief," Dr. D. Cloy Lilly on "American Education" and H. A. Baum on "Statistical Mirror."

This afternoon Dr. Vance spoke on "Evangelism" and Rev. Pratt discussed the field program of the interchurch world movement.

PROHIBITION AN ISSUE

Prohibition as an issue in the coming campaign cannot be escaped, according to the best political judgment in Washington This has long been the opinion of those who observe the signs of the time. The national conventions may manage to side step it, although this is doubtful, but candidates for office on the national tickets must "face the music." They must be "wet" or they must be "dry." There will be no neutral ground.

Already the prohibitionists have flatly announced that they will oppose all candidates at the fall elections who have a wet record. The Anti-Saloon League even now is cataloguing those in public life who have voted "right," or voted wrong, and that organization is prepared to prescribe every aspirant for the presidency, the Senate and the House, who voted against the Volstead bill, or even wavered in support of the eighteenth amendment.

This challenge has now been met by the "wet" forces, who have done a little cataloguing of their own, and who announce that they will undertake the defeat of any candidate whom the Anti Saloon League claims as its own, and they are mobilizing their forces for a "show down."

"The "wets," according to an announcement from "wet" headquarters in Washington, "have adopted the successful methods of the Anti Saloon League in their campaign, and the league will be met in the political arena, by a great Anti-Anti-Saloon League,' doing politics after the most approved methods of the 'dry' organization."

The "wet" announcement continues:

"The great majority of Americans, we believe, are against the eighteenth amendment. On the other hand, the majority are unalterably opposed to the saloon, which can never be re-established. Thousands of them have voted prohibition for their own communities, but they are opposed to imposing their will on other communities, where public sentiment does not support such a measure. They are anxious to join any movement that will repeal a law distasteful to their conception of American principles, but they are averse to joining such a movement if it is backed by the liquor interests."

YOUTH IS KILLED

Washington, March 2.—Girard Hough, 9 years old, 923 Kentucky avenue southwest, was killed yesterday near twelfth and East Capitol streets while bravely endeavoring to pull a companion from a wagon driven by Michael Donald, 407 Ninth street, northeast. The boy slipped, the wagon passing over his body.

The injured lad was taken to Casualty Hospital in a passing machine but was pronounced dead, having suffered a compound fracture of the skull.

Charles Kehne, 113 Third street northwest, who was also on the wagon at the time of the accident, declared that he did not know the boys were playing around the wagon until one of the children screamed that his companion had been run over. No arrests have been made.

Who Pays The Fiddler?

There is an old saying that "Those who dance must pay the fiddler." The same thought applies to other things as well.

For example, we have here a homelike community which we all appreciate and enjoy. But what would happen to our pleasant community if we all stopped replenishing the fund out of which the expense of upkeep is taken. Our community would soon go to rack and ruin so that we should be ashamed to call it our own.

For every dollar that is sent out of town, somebody has to pay more taxes, because that dollar has gone to do its work elsewhere. The dollar spent with a local dealer pays its share of the cost of local improvements, helps to reduce your taxes and to make your home enjoyable.

PRAISE AMERICANS

Berlin, March 2.—More favorable things are being said about Americans in Germany at present than ever before. The good words are not spoken for the American in general, but particularly for the American doughboy. Thousand of prisoners returning from French prison camps, who at some time or other encountered the American soldier, are singing the doughboy's praises.

Many stories are being told of how the Americans gave captured Germans a share of their food. The Germans back from prison camps controlled by Americans also speak of their fine treatment while held there. They describe the Americans as showing a spirit of real sportsmanship. The hatred of the battle field was dropped after the fighting was over and the Germans were imprisoned. This, the Germans declare, was not true with the French, and for this reason they hope for an earlier reconciliation with America than with France.

Strike of 2,500 in Baltimore Involves Open Shop Fight

Baltimore, Md., March 2.—With approximately 6,000 men out of work as the result of the strike at the plant of the Baltimore Drydocks and Shipbuilding Company the only work being done on the company's property yesterday was emergency repairs, on which about 800 men were engaged. About 2,500 men are striking, and the remainder of the 6,000 have been thrown out because their work depends on that left by the strikers.

The trouble started several weeks ago with the issuance of an order requiring all foremen to withdraw from their unions. It was charged that some of them were violating the open-shop principle, which Holden A. Evans, president of the company, declares he will maintain, by discriminating in favor of unionists in the employment of new men.

The clash occurred in connection with a meeting of demobilized troops The police fired when stones were thrown from the crowd. The two wounded men died during the night.

PALMER ENTERS RACE

Gives Georgians "Opportunity to Pass on Administration Record"

Atlanta, March 2.—Attorney General Palmer last night formally announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for President in a telegram to Hiram L. Gardner, secretary of the Georgia State Democratic committee.

Referring to the petition filed in his behalf for the Georgia primaries, Mr. Palmer declared that "if the Democrats of Georgia see fit to select me as their choice I shall receive the honor with deep appreciation," holding it to be highly important that an opportunity be given in the primary "to directly pass upon the record made by the present administration."

Mr. Palmer added in his telegram "The candidacy of one who supports that record in every phase presents that opportunity."

U. S. STEEL CO. VICTOR

Supreme Court Dismisses Goverments Petition for Dissolution

Washington, March 2.—The Supreme Court yesterday upheld formation of the United States Steel Corporation and subsidiary combinations in the iron and steel industry.

Refusing to dissolve the so-called "Steel Trust," the Court dismissed the Federal Government's lawsuit for dissolution.

Affirming the New Jersey Federal Court's dismissal of the Government prosecution, the Supreme Court declined to enjoin the restraint of trade charged and also denied an order to break up the super-combination, said to be the world's greatest industrial organization, with assets exceeding $2,000,000,000.

In dismissing the Federal suit, however, the court ordered such dismissal "without prejudice," permitting the Government to sue again if the corporation actually resorts to illegal, wrongful or repressive practices.

Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodsons Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless pleasant and safe to give to children: they like it.

The famous Virginia debt case was wiped from the Supreme Court docket yesterday on notification that the judgment against West Virginia had been paid. Proceedings were instituted in 1906 and nine years later the court awarded the mother State a judgment for $12,393,000, representing West Virginia's share of the old debt. West Virginia paid $1,100,000 in cash and $13,400,000 in 3 1-2 per cent bonds.

Judge Edward W. Judge Saunders was elected by the General Assembly to succeed Judge Whittle, resigned.

Operation of the James River boats of the Old Dominion Steamship Company will be continued for some time at least, it was announced yesterday afternoon, following a conference between Richmond business men and H. DROP ACTION ON RAID BILL

Miami, Fla., March 2.—No further action will be taken by the American Federation of Labor in regard to the railroad bill signed by the President over the protest of organized labor, said Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, who came to Miami yesterday with other national officers of the federation for a three days' mesting here, yesterday.

"What is the use?" said Mr. Gompers. "The federation was much opposed to the railroad bill as drafted, and I can speak for them all when I say that the action of the President is to be regretted."

MONROE DOCTRINE

State Department Answers Salvador's Inquiry

Washington, March 2.—The reply to the request of the Republic of Salvador for an interpretation of the Monroe Doctrine has been forwarded, it was announced yesterday at the State Department. Its text was not made public, but officials said it was virtually the same as the interpretation given by President Wilson in an address before the second Pan-American Scientific Congress here on January 5, 1916.

This address of the President was referred to in the reply to Salvador. The President outlined to the Pan-American Congress the proposals submitted to South and Central American diplomats by the State Department as a basis for an effective agreement between all the republics of the Western Hemisphere, "not only for international peace of America but for domestic peace as well."

"I hope and believe that this can be accomplished," said Mr. Wilson. "It will be accomplished in the first place by the states of America uniting in guaranteeing to each other absolute political and interindependence and territorial integrity.

"In the second place, and as a necessary corrolary to that, guaranteeing the agreement to settle all pending boundary disputes among themselves, should they unhappily arise will be handled by patience, impartial investigation and settled by arbitration and the agreement necessary to the peace of the Americas; that no state of either continent will permit revolutionary expeditions against another state to be fitted out on its territory, and that they will prohibit the exportation of munitions of war for the purpose of supplying revolutionists against neighboring governments"

MAY TAX ALL INCOMES

State Levies Cover Nonresidents, Supreme Court Holds

Washington, March 2.—Right of the States to impose income taxes on nonresidents, provided they are in harmony with those imposed on residents, was upheld and defined yesterday by the Supreme Court in two decisions.

In a case from Oklahoma, the court held that a State unquestionably had authority to levy income taxes derived from property within the State.

In a New York case, however, the court declared that such taxes against nonresidents must not be discriminatory.

The Oklahoma income tax law was sustained and the New York law was declared void insofar as it denies to nonresidents exemptions which are given New York citizens. Both opinions were given by Justice Pitney, with Justice McReynolds dissenting in the New York case. In both suits were involved the exemptions, similar to the Federal income tax law, provided for married and single persons.

Distinction between the Oklahoma and New York laws, it appears, was that the Oklahoma law gives nonresidents and citizens the same exemptions, while the New York law denies to nonresidents exemptions granted its own citizens.

SUFFRAGE BEATEN

Amendment Leader Breaks Tie in West Virginia Senate

Charleston, W. Va., March 2.—On the initial vote yesterday in the West Virginia senate on the Anthony amendment the official tally stood fifteen against ratification and thirteen for, after Senator Harmer, the suffrage leader, had changed his vote and broken a tie. This action enables him to move for reconsideration of the resolution later, and that motion is expected to come up tomorrow. The dead lock had been predicted. Senator Floyd Chapman, of Huntington, voted no and Senator G. K. Kump, of Romney, voted in the affirmative in support of Gov. John J. Cornwell, whom he said was the Democratic party leader in the State and had asked for ratification of the amendment. These two votes had been the most doubtful.

RURAL SURVEY OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

Religious Statistics Are Secured From County To Be Used By Local Churches

HEARTY CO-OPERATION ASKED

Information To Be Gathered In Every Part Of The County According To Communities Will Have Large Significance

The rural survey department of the Interchurch World Movement has been organized to assemble information and analyze conditions from a religious standpoint in every county in the state, according to Dr. James Buchanan, Rural Survey Supervisor for the state of Virginia, with headquarters at 1030 Mutual Building, Richmond, Va.

In order for the churches of a community to carry on their work of evangelizing the territory in which they are situated and to contribute their share towards the complete evangelization of the world, which is the ideal in every Christian heart, it is necessary that the actual conditions which exist in each county be discovered. Because of the vital importance of this work, the movement is calling upon the pastors of all denominations and others who are informed relative to religious conditions to render all the assistance possible towards the completion of the work.

This information, after being tabulated by experts, is taken back to the counties, where the several Protestant denominations with churches in the county co-operatively study it and decide on the county's church needs. Recommendations are made by the county churches of each denomination that so desires, to the denominational home mission, Sunday school and other boards so that these boards can co-operate intelligently and effectively with the local county church organizations.

The Interchurch World Movement is attempting to do its work on a democratic basis. It is neither dictating nor attempting to dictate to any church or denomination what shall be done. The denominations in each county must decide unanimously among themselves on any joint county program for church betterment before it is adopted or undertaken with the co-operation of the Interchurch World Movement. The survey department is designed to help build up and meet the needs of the local churches through the local and county denominational interests.

An Interchurch World Movement survey of a county develops facts as to the county's geographical location and the general character of its agricultural, commercial and industrial life, its road system and means of intercommunication, public school system and other educational institutions, welfare and benevolent institutions, other organizations and individuals engaged in public service for the entire county.

Accompanying a general survey of a county is a more detailed survey of each community, a community being regarded as a unit of territory and population characterized by common economic and social experiences and interests.

The community survey designates the outline and location of the community on information acquired from storekeepers, bankers and other informed persons. Territory not definitely included within the limits of any trade community is considered in connection with the communities to which it is contiguous and to which it is most closely related. Thus no area is omitted in the enumeration of population and other statistical information. The survey takes account of the community's economic conditions, such as natural resources, chief sources of income, soil, climate and market conditions, relations of farmers and business men, industrial data, etc. The social life and organizations of the community are covered in detail, together with other information to throw light on the state of the social mind.

The third link in the survey chain is the survey of each church in each community. This sets out the location, denomination, minister, date of organization, descriptive data as to buildings and equipment, membership, regular and special meetings and tabulated results therefrom, statistics as to area covered by the parish, number of families reached, parish problems and other data to give a comprehensive vision of the parish, and supplemented by information as to the program of work outlined for the church by the pastor and the official boards.

The triple surveys—county, community and church—assemble all information that may be needed to aid the individual churches and denominations in working out their present problems and future programs of development, so that wasted effort may be eliminated and unproductive activities of each denomination may be transferred to productive fields.

The need of such a systematic study of church conditions is apparent by the results of investigation already made in some sections of the South, if the churches are to accomplish the greatest possible amount of good. The conditions found to exist in some quarters are rather startling. In one county in the South, for instance, there are 44 churches, of which 14 are dead and only 16 of which maintain Sunday schools.

SENATOR BANKHEAD DIES

Senior Member From Alabama Succumbs After Long Illness

Washington, March 2.—After several months of ill health, Senator John W. Bankhead, senior Senator from Alabama, died at his home, 1868 Columbia road, at 12:30 yesterday afternoon. An attack of grip was the immediate cause of his death.

Senator Bankhead was born at Sulligent, Ala., September 13, 1842. Enlisting in the Confederate army at the outbreak of the war he became lieutenant and later captain of the Sixteenth Alabama Volunteers. During the war he fought with distinction and was three times wounded.

Senator Bankhead served in the House of Representatives from the 51st to the 59th Congress. In June, 1907, he was appointed United States Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator John T. Morgan. In July, 1907, he was elected by the Legislature and had since been chosen to represent his state.

Senator Bankhead was a member of the Masonic fraternity. His son, William B. Bankhead, is a member of the House from the Tenth Alabama District.

SLAYER OF AMERICAN HUNG

Murderer of Former U. S. Consul Executed by Men of Own Gang

Washington, March 2.—The first Mexican murderer of an American citizen to be hanged in Mexico has been executed by order of the bandits themselves.

The other process of demanding punishment by the Mexican federal government has aparently been either too slow or uncertain, so the bandits themselves got to work in the case of the murder of the aged August Morrill, former American consul at Manzanillo. The bandits made quick work of the case. Morrill was reported to have been murdered on February 26. The bandits investigated and on the morning of February 28, according to a State Department announcement today, an outlaw named Cacheton was found hanged near the scene of the killing. The execution of Cacheton is stated to have been under orders of Cipriano Corona, leader of the bandits.

Fulfilling a promise made to Colonel E. C. Carnahan, United States Army, in command here, and Francis J. Dayer, American consul at Nogales, Sonora, Mexican military authorities today dispatched Federal troops from Saric, Mexico, in an effort to apprehend E. Lara and an unidentified companion, charged with the murder of Alexander J. Frazier and his brother, John Frazier at Montana Camp Friday afternoon.

WOULD RUIN HOLY CITY

Jerusalem, March 2.—Evidence of a Turkish plot to destroy Jerusalem rather than allow Lord Allenby to occupy the Holy City is said to have been found by the discovery of huge quantities of explosives concealed here by the Turks.

While clearing out cisterns in Jerusalem, their troops found hundreds of shells, airplane, bombs, hand grenades and several tons of cordite, dynamite and detonators.

From a kitchen cistern thousands of rounds of small arms ammunition, bayonets and revolvers were taken.

THEATRES

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Pollyanna," the "Glad Girl" of the world famous stories which has been done in motion picture by Mary Pickford and which will be seen at the Richmond Theatre again tonight has a wonderful philosophy teaching all sorts of folks how to play what she calls the "Glad Game."

Some bits of her quaint philosophy are very amusing, for example:

"Just be glad—that's the game."

"Most generally, there is something about everything that you can be glad about, if you keep hunting long enough to find it."

"I can be glad there isn't any looking glass, 'cause where there isn't any glass I can't see my freckles."

"And you didn't break but one leg! You can be glad 'twasn't two."

"If God took the trouble to tell us 800 times to be glad and rejoice, He must want us to do it—some."

"I should think you would be gladder on Monday morning than on any other day in the week, because 'twould be a whole week before you'd have another one."

"It's funny how dogs and cats know the insides of folks better than other folks do, isn't it?"

"We used to say how glad we were we liked beans—that is, we said it 'specially when we were looking at the roast turkey place, you know that was sixty cents."

"It takes a woman's hand and heart, or a child's presence to make a home."

"Mrs. White has got the most money, but Mrs. Jones gives the most, which is kind of funny when you think of it, isn't it."

"I reckon I'm glad this morning just to be alive."

GRAND THEATRE

If anyone in the population of movie fans wants to know how to elope with a girl he can get inside information from Vitagraph's latest picture. This film, entitled "Over the Garden Wall," and presenting Bessie Love in the stellar role, shows all the tricks of the eloper's trade.

Just grab the girl. Never mind if she pulls your hair. Then tumble her into your touring car and away with her. The whole thing can be seen when the picture is shown at the Grand Theatre tonight. Also "Al Jennings."

INGOMAR—Robert Warwick

"Secret Service" is the title and subject of the new Paramount-Artcraft special, with Major Robert Warwick, which is at the Ingomar today. The story is based on the play by William Gillette, dealing with a Union spy who nearly caused the capture of the Confederate army in Richmond and who did succeed in winning a Southern beauty. It is not only a thriller, but a real drama.

They say "fine feathers make fine birds."
There's lots of wisdom in these words, suggests Dainty Dorothy.

Clothes wisdom means clothing thriftiness these days. Even if papa's from Pittsburgh he has cast a stern and forbidding eye in the direction of clothes extravagance. He is having his old suits cleaned and pressed, and found out that some of them didn't show a trace of wear. And he is asking mamma and daughter to fall in line and keep step.
